Selamat pagi

Good Morning

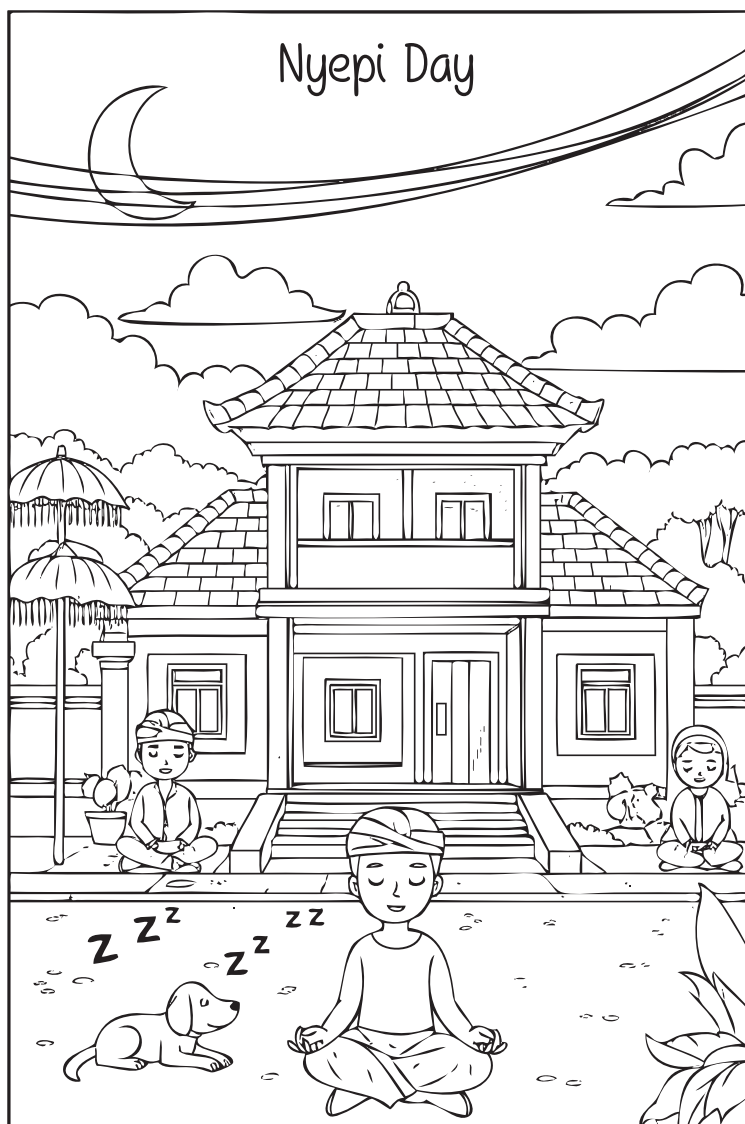

Halo

Hello

Nyepi - Bali's Day of Silence

Nyepi is a special time in Bali when everyone stays quiet and inside. Even the airport closes.

FUN FACT

The night before Nyepi, Balinese people parade giant monster statues called Ogoh-Ogoh through the streets. They're made to look super scary to chase away bad spirits.

Draw your own Ogoh Ogoh below

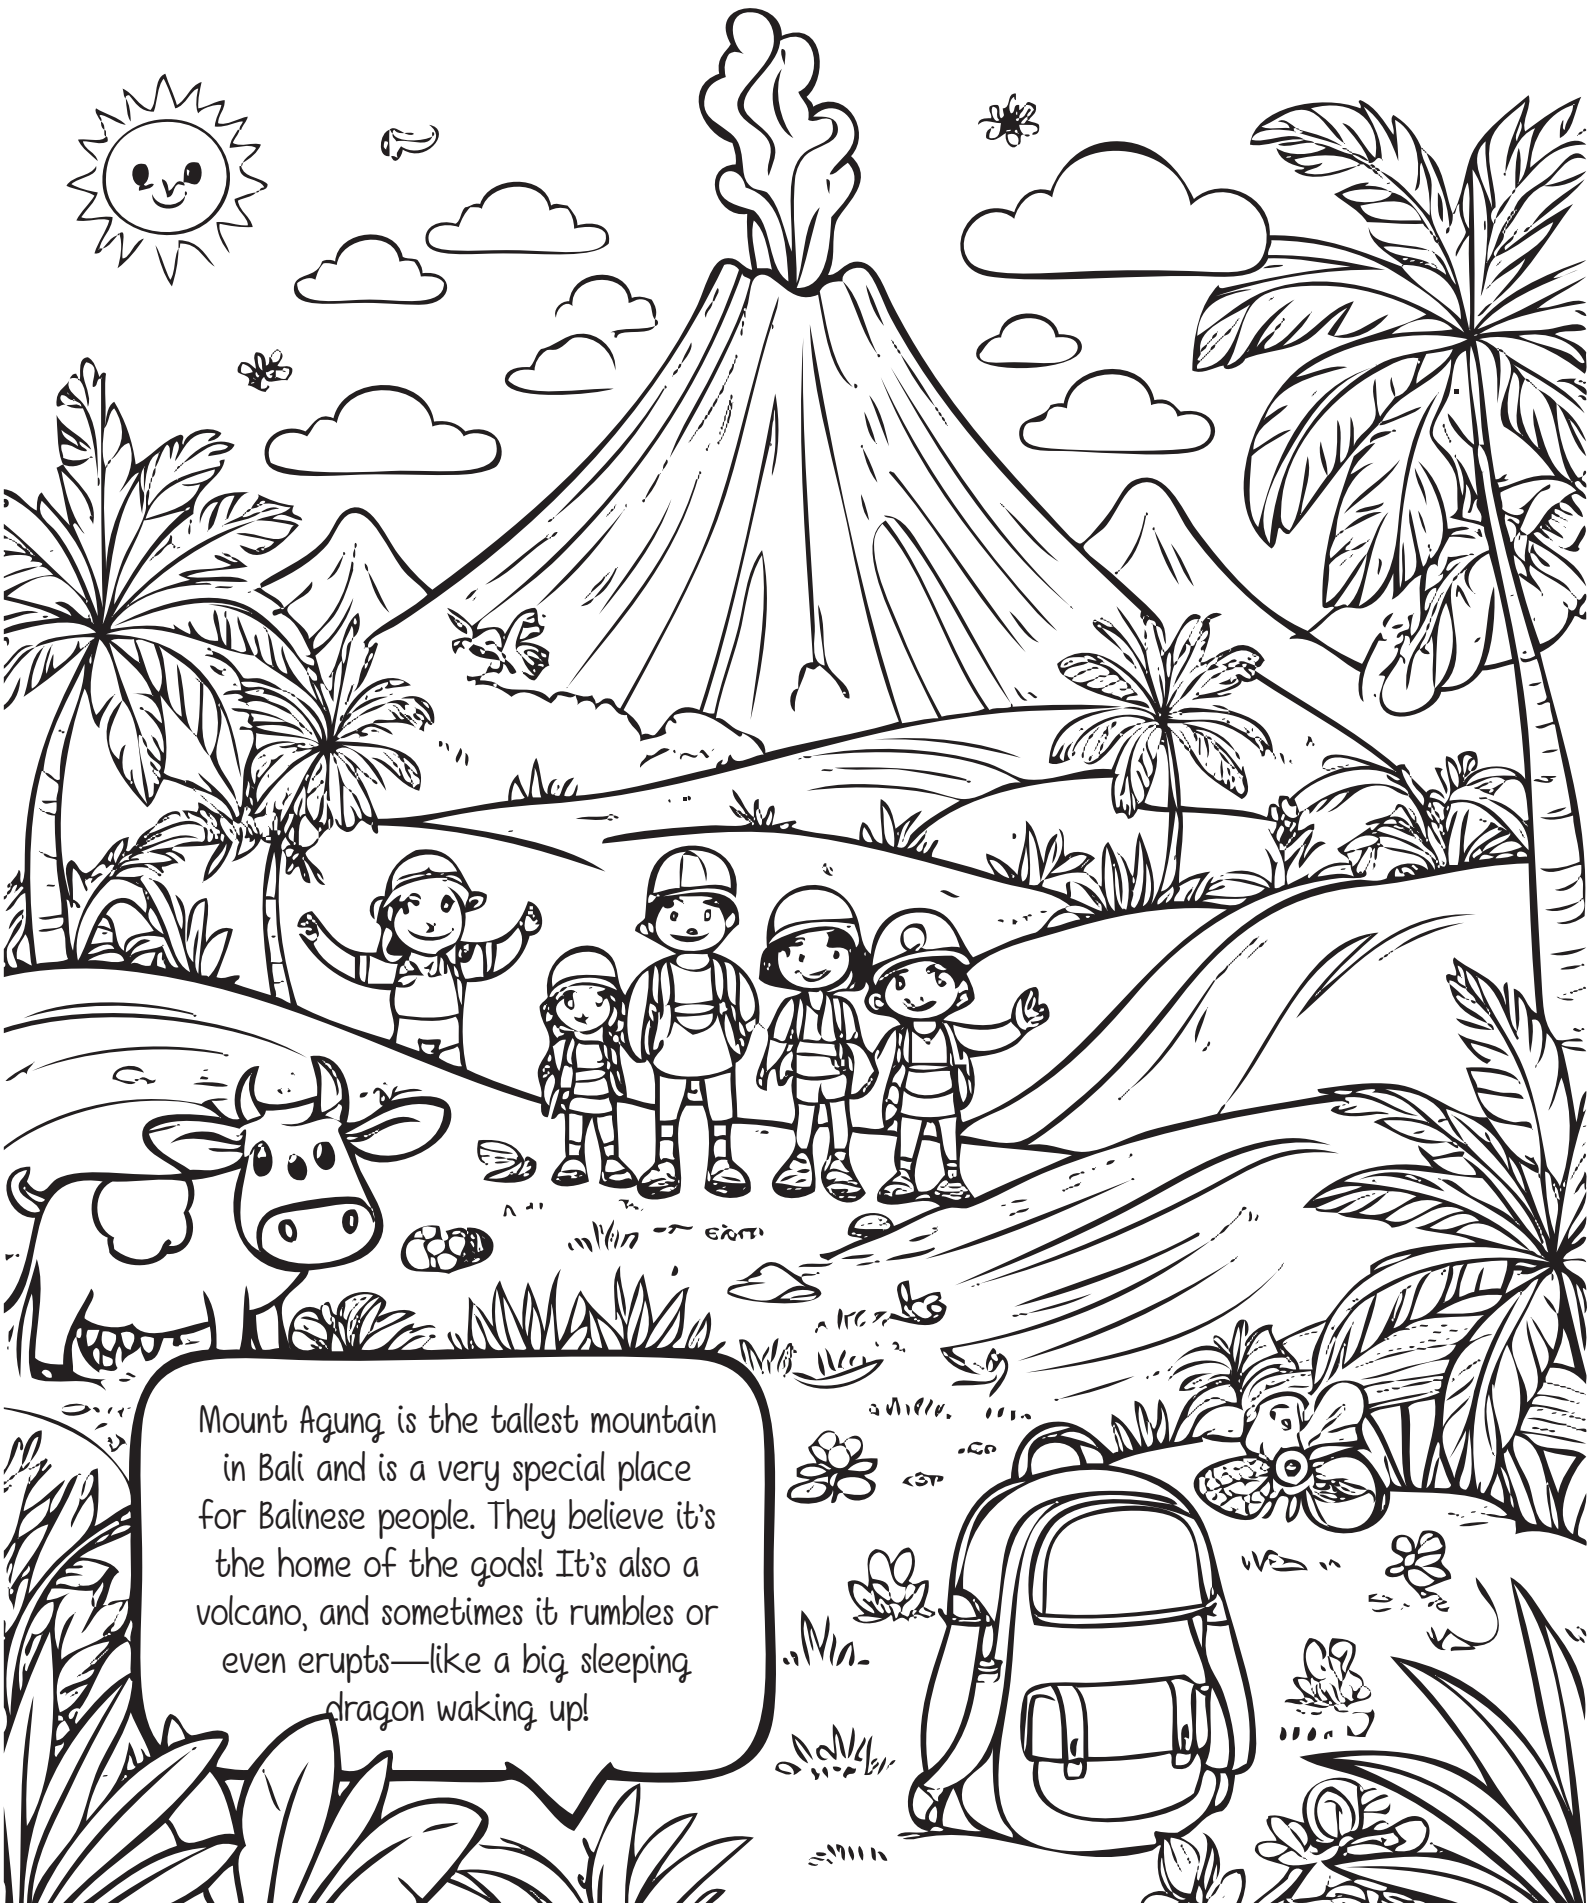

Kites!

In Bali, flying kites has a special meaning. People fly kites to thank the gods. It's part of a tradition to bring peace, good harvests, and happiness. Some kites are really big, and shaped like dragons, birds, or fish!

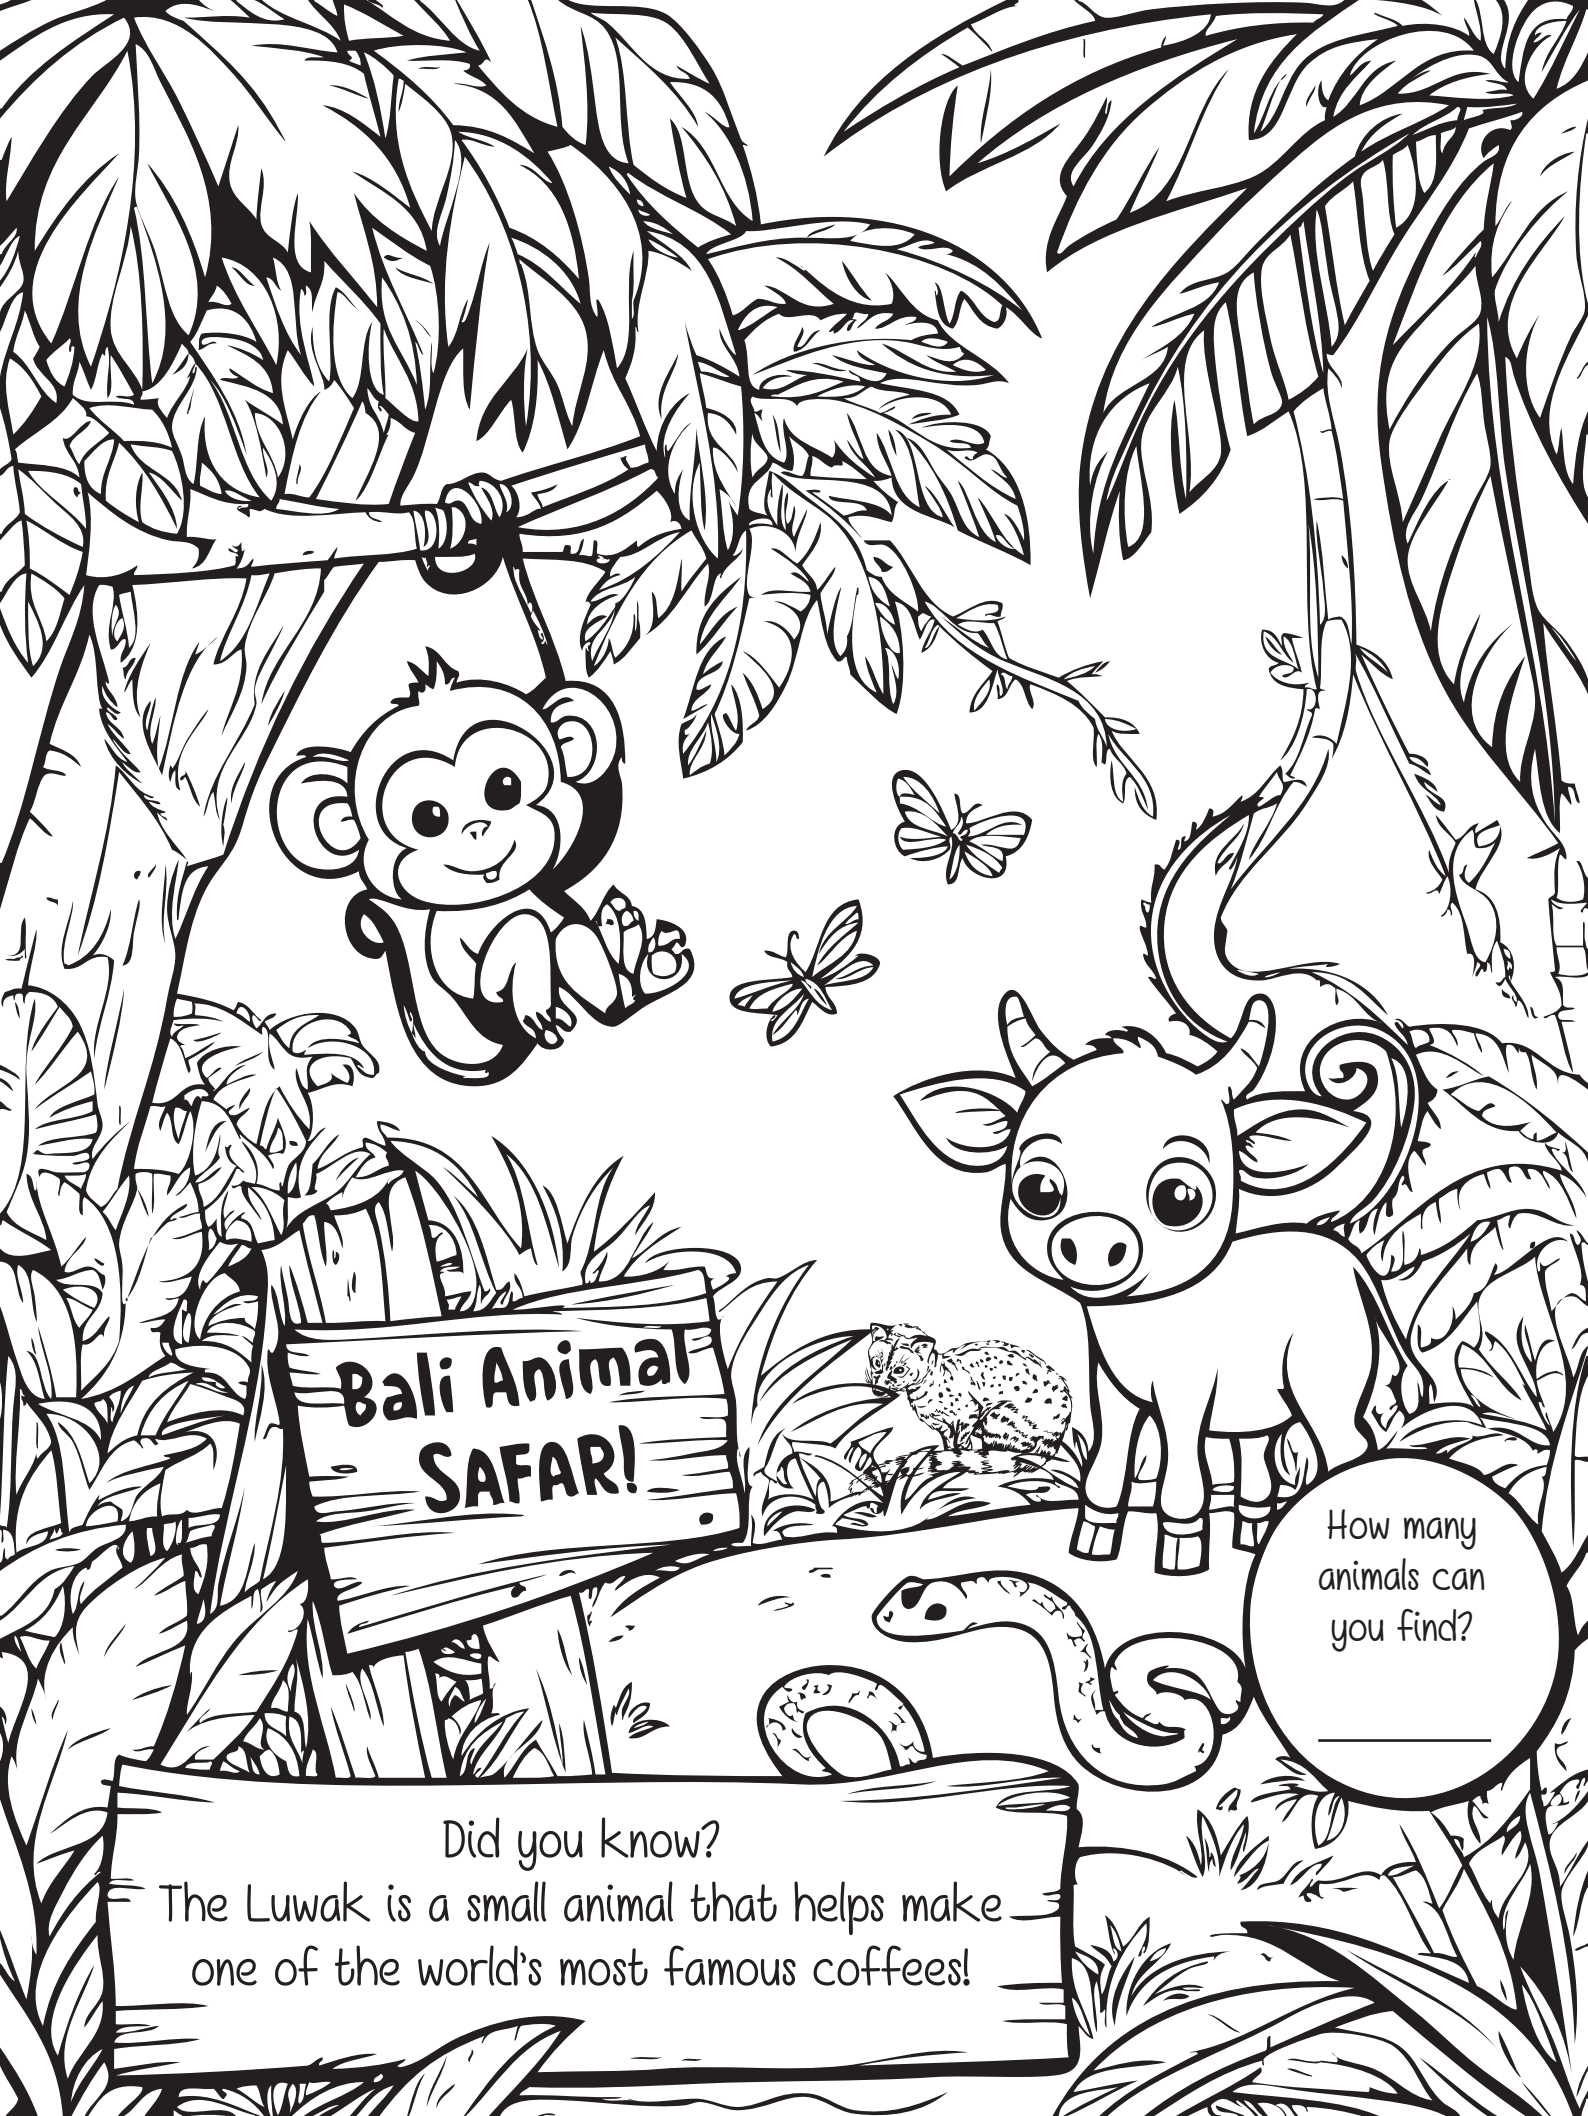

DID YOU KNOW – BALINESE PEOPLE FLY GIANT KITES TO SEND THANKS TO THE GODS FOR GOOD HARVESTS!

Mount Agung Adventure!

Mount Agung is the tallest mountain in Bali and is a very special place for Balinese people. They believe it's the home of the gods! It's also a volcano, and sometimes it rumbles or even erupts—like a big sleeping dragon waking up!

DID YOU KNOW – MOUNT AGUNG'S ERUPTIONS HELP MAKE BALI'S SOIL VERY RICH FOR GROWING RICE!

Bali Animal SAFAR!

How many animals can you find?

Did you know?
The Luwak is a small animal that helps make one of the world's most famous coffees!

Balinese Music Time!

Balinese people play music to celebrate and bring people together. It's called gamelan and you'll hear it at dances, temples, ceremonies and festivals!

DID YOU KNOW – BALINESE MUSIC OFTEN TELLS STORIES AND HELPS IN CEREMONIES AND DANCES!

Balinese School

Seru

Let's learn a fun word from Bali — "Seru" (say: seh-roo). It means "fun!" So when school or playing feels really exciting, you can say, "It's seru!" Easy, right?

DID YOU KNOW – SOME BALINESE KIDS CAN'T GO TO SCHOOL BECAUSE THEIR FAMILIES DON'T HAVE ENOUGH MONEY.

Rice Farming Fun!

Rice is the most important food in Bali. Farmers work hard to grow it!

DID YOU KNOW – RICE IS A BIG PART OF EVERY MEAL IN BALI — IT'S THEIR MAIN FOOD!

Balinese Ceremonies

Ceremonies happen all the time in Bali — even babies have their own special day!

DID YOU KNOW – BALINESE CEREMONIES HAPPEN OFTEN TO CELEBRATE IMPORTANT EVENTS AND THANK THE GODS!

Bali Transport

In Bali, there are lot's of Taxi's and Scooters. Scooters are everywhere — even dogs ride them sometimes!

Which ride would YOU pick?
Circle your favourite!

DID YOU KNOW – BALI'S STREETS CAN BE VERY BUSY WITH SCOOTERS, CARS, AND PEDESTRIANS EVERYWHERE!

Waterfalls

How many animals can you find?

Bali has over 20 waterfalls!
Some are hidden deep in the jungle

DID YOU KNOW – SOME BALI WATERFALLS ARE OVER 30 METERS TALL AND MAKE LOUD ROARING SOUNDS?

Balinese Traditional Clothes!

People in Bali wear traditional clothes for ceremonies and special days!

Design your own sarong pattern!

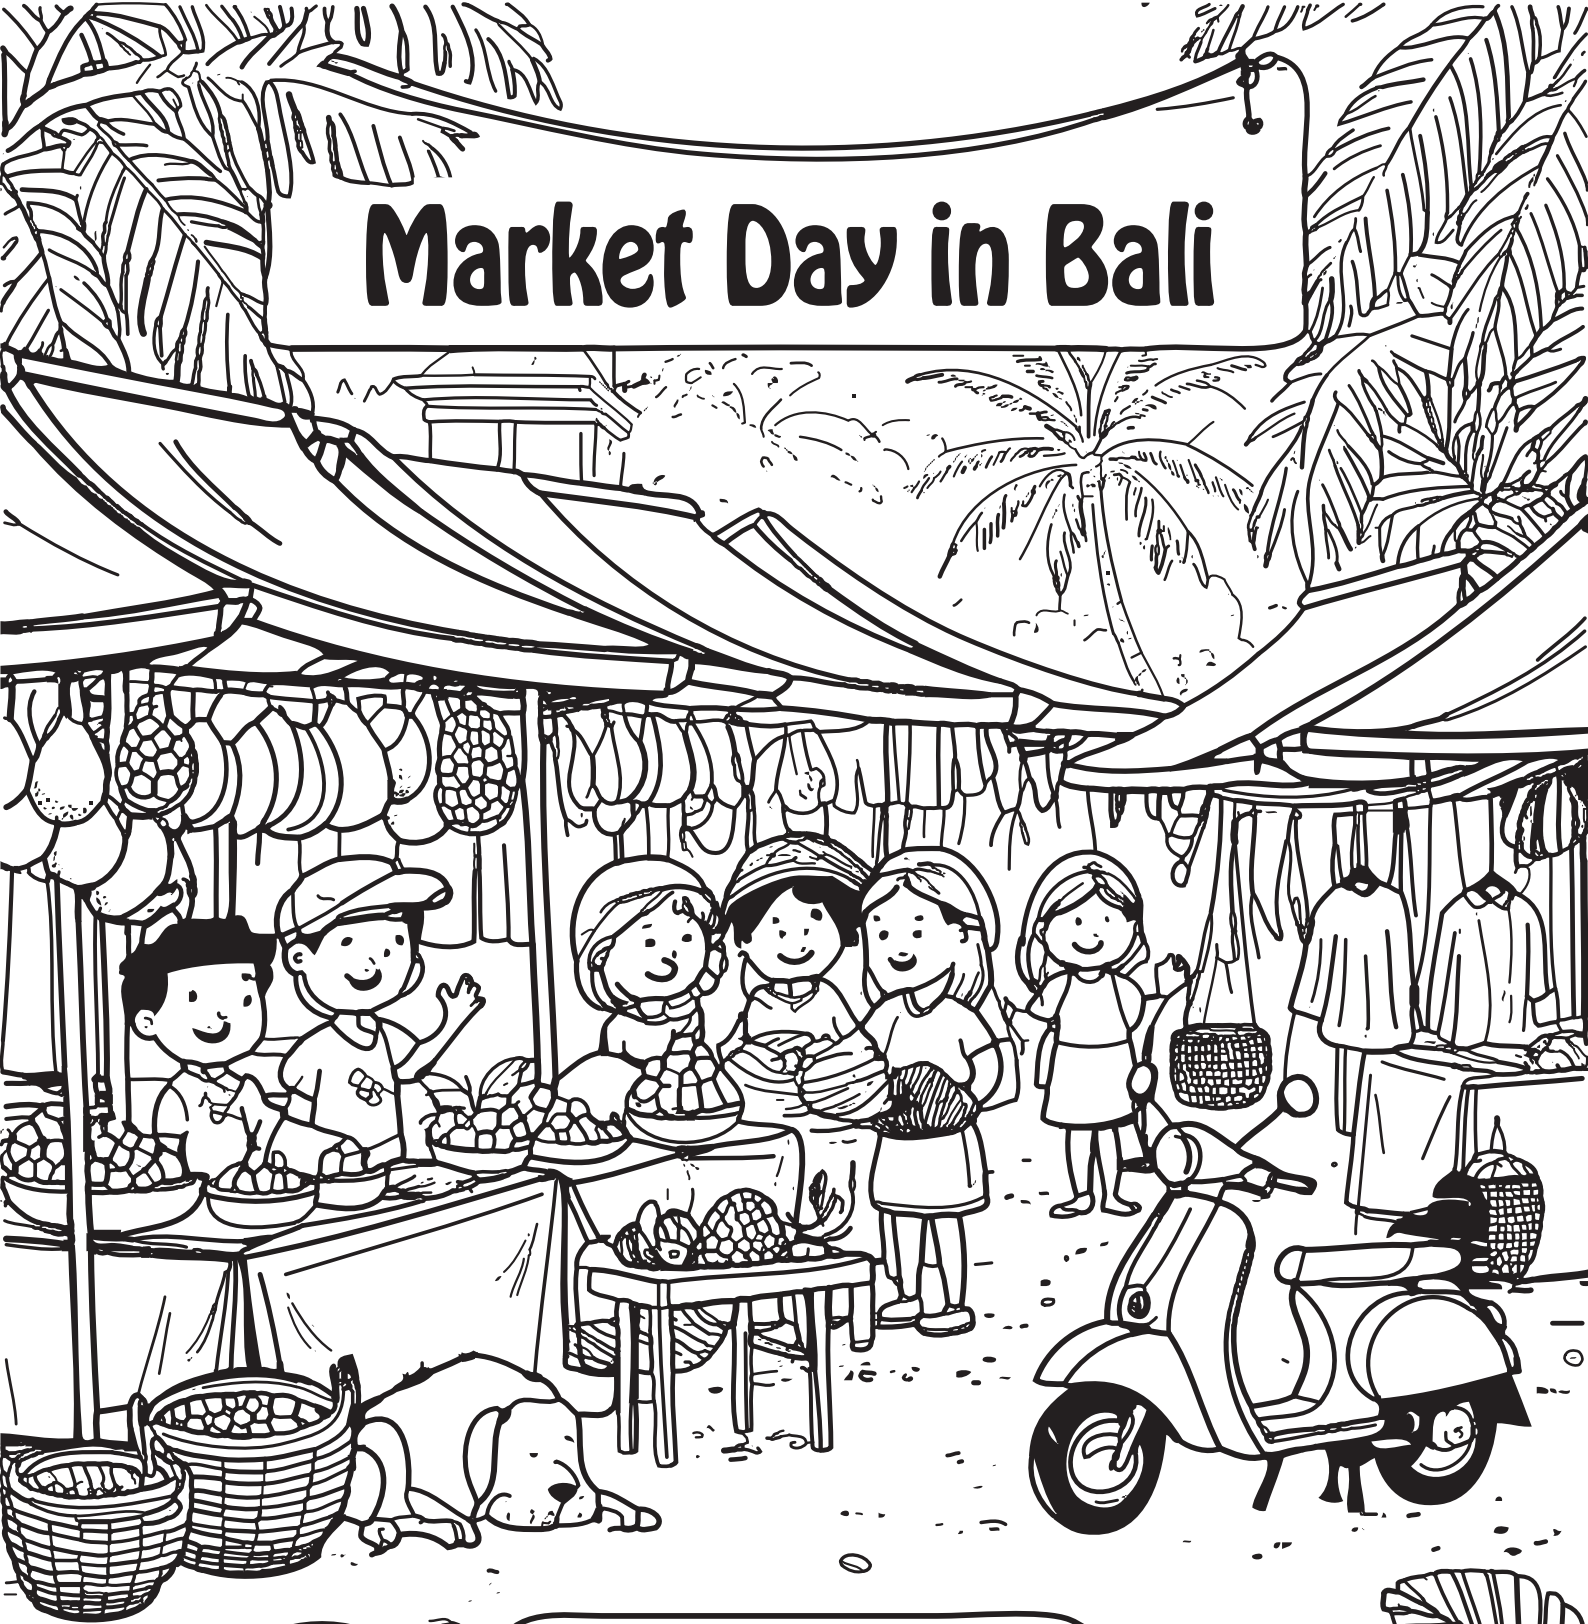

Magical Creatures of Bali

Can you create your own magical creature?

DID YOU KNOW – BALINESE LEGENDS TALK ABOUT MAGICAL CREATURES LIKE THE BARONG, A PROTECTOR SPIRIT!

Market Day in Bali

What would you bargain for?

In Bali, markets are full of colors,
yummy smells, and cool things to buy—like toys, clothes, and fruit!
People often bargain, which means they talk about the price and try to get a better deal. It's like a friendly game to see who gets the best price!

Sunset At The Beach

Bali beaches get super fun at sunset! Locals sell snacks, cold drinks, and even give massages or paint your nails. You can sit on bean bags, watch the waves, and enjoy the awesome sunset!

DID YOU KNOW – BALI BEACHES HAVE AMAZING SUNSETS THAT PAINT THE SKY WITH ORANGE AND PINK COLORS!

Pool Day With Friends

Hotel pools in Bali are where all the fun (and friendships!) happen! Kids splash, play games, and make new friends from all over the world. It's the perfect place to cool off, laugh, and maybe even learn a new pool trick or two!

Draw the friends you met on your Bali trip!

DID YOU KNOW – WHEN YOU SWIM IN BALI'S POOLS, YOU CAN MEET KIDS FROM MANY DIFFERENT COUNTRIES!
